

HUBBELL HOUSE

Crocker Ltd received the 2008 New Mexico Heritage Preservation Award for Architectural Heritage for the “Remarkable Rehabilitation of the Hubbell House.”

PROJECT:

The Gutiérrez-Hubbell House was the Albuquerque home of John Lorenzo Hubbell, founder of the Ganado, Arizona trading post. The Hubbell Trading Post, now a National Historic Site, was modeled after this Albuquerque estate.

CLIENT:

Bernalillo County, New Mexico

SCOPE OF WORK:

Crocker Ltd provided complete restoration services for this 5,700 square foot hacienda. Bernalillo County will utilize the property as a living history museum.

CROCKER · LTD

Architectural Conservation

